The Tupelo Honey Band is a celebration to the music of legendary Irish singer-songwriter Van Morrison. Formed in 2014, the band seeks to honor Morrison's music and legacy by performing his classic and timeless songs with reverence and admiration. The band's current lineup consists of seven members:

Jim DeRosa - Lead Vocals

Cyriese Lambert - Lead & Backing Vocals

Ralph Vargas - Drums & Percussion

"Boots" Anderson - Guitar

Robbie Wingle - Bass

Robin Corley - Saxophone & Flute

Each member of the band is an experienced and professional musician with a deep understanding of Morrison's works, as well as their own rich musical backgrounds. Their passion for music shines through in each of their performances, making them one of the most sought-after Tribute Bands for concerts and performance halls on the East Coast and across the United States.

The Tupelo Honey Band is well-known for their faithful renditions of Van Morrison's songs, as well as their unique interpretations of his musical style. From "Brown Eyed Girl" to "Moondance", the band has been consistently praised by fans and critics alike for their ability to capture the essence of Morrison's music. The band puts on captivating live performances that are sure to entertain audiences of all ages.

TUPELO HONEY IS A CELEBRATION. SING ALONG, DANCE, AND ENJOY THE GREAT MUSIC. WE'RE HERE TO MAKE SURE THE CROWD HAS A WONDERFUL TIME!

Testimonials

We thoroughly enjoyed the show, what a pleasant surprise. We definitely recommend them to everyone!

–Greg & Carolyn from Hatfield

We absolutely loved them! We danced and sang all night long to every song. The night we saw the show was actually their 2nd time performing the Van Morrison celebration. Was blown away when we found that out. We thought they have been performing together for years! Can't wait to see them again!

–Tammy May

Totally enjoyed the band. He sounds so much like Van Morrison.

–Karen Lewis

Absolutely awesome Friday night at the Landis Theater in Vineland NJ.
